

I hope the FCC will acknowledge that it is my right as a tax and phone bill paying citizen to have my name on a non-solicitation list. Telephone service is a necessary part of our everyday lives, but life has become so complicated, that sometimes meal times are almost the only time a nuclear family can share. Please protect this time for us.